At the Stamford Y, kids spend the day creating arts and crafts, exploring science and technology, learning to swim, participating in field trips, exploring nature, learning about our many cultures and making new friends and memories. Summer learning, including literacy activities, is also part of the Y summer experience. The Stamford Y offers an exceptional array of activities taught by trained specialists. Each day campers learn new skills, play and have a lot of fun. There are weekly themes and special events. Camps include:

Camp Mini (for children who have completed one year of pre-K or are in kindergarten): Campers will enjoy six periods, 45 minutes each, of specials including, arts and crafts, swim lessons twice per day, nature, athletics, theatre, field trips, outdoor adventures and more.

Camp WOW (grades 1-5): Focuses on the Y's core values of caring, honesty, respect and social responsibility. There is plenty of time to make new friends, sing, play, explore, learn, and laugh, all under the watchful eyes of nurturing staff. Campers enjoy six periods, 45 minutes each, of specials including outdoor adventures, sports, theatre, swimming twice per day, arts and crafts, field trips and much more.

Teen Adventure Camp (Grades 6-8): Ideal for the teen who is up for a challenge and wants to be on the move and meet new people. Activities may include canoeing, rock climbing, swimming, fishing, white water rafting, paint balling, skeet shooting, camping and hiking. Field trips may include visits to the New York Yankees, laser tag, ropes courses, mini golf and Six Flags Great Adventure! Camp culminates with a week-long trip in the fourth session.
