For over 25 years, Stamford's longest-running, non-profit theatre-producing company has offered year-round performances and creative opportunities. A variety of after school, evening and weekend classes are offered fall, winter and spring for ages five to adult including acting for the stage, TV and film, comedy, improvisation, musical theatre and Shakespeare. (Fall classes begin September 17, 2016.) Full-day winter and summer vacation programs also available for ages six to sixteen. Our 26th season of theatrical productions has something for everyone — children, families and performances for a mom-and-dad-date-night. Shows include: Ragtime, The Best Man, Scrooge: The Musical, Glengarry Glen Ross, The Who's Tommy, Beauty and the Beast, Sweet Charity and more! Concert events, interactive murder mysteries and comedy nights are also offered. Check the website for classes, events, ticket prices and more information.
