LinguaKids, LLC®

LinguaKids is Fairfield County's learning and most extensive language program. French, Spanish, Italian and Chinese classes start at 6 months and up. Mandarin classes are offered in collaboration of the Confucius Institute of Optometry at Suny college of optometry. All LinguaKids teachers are native speakers. Other languages are available upon request.

LinguaKids enrolls over 500 children in their various language programs. Children 6 months-2 years old participate in Mommy and Me classes, older children participate in the Explorers Program, Voyagers or Adventurers! A fun theme is presented each session. Students attending multiple sessions will benefit from the repetition of familiar subjects and the introduction of new ones.

Classes are offered during the day as well as before and after school programs in more than 20 schools and nursery school throughout Fairfield and Westchester counties.

Private tutoring and classes for homeschooled students are also available.
