The Guilford Riding School is a traditional, English-style riding stable with a modern philosophy — that anyone can learn to ride our quality school horses and enjoy all of the activities we offer without hidden additional costs.

At our school, you will feel as though you are among friends, that the horses are safe and well cared for, and that you can progress at your own pace.

We offer group lessons for adults, young adults and children, and we have a special program called Mini-Mights for children ages 5-8.

At The Guilford Riding School, you will ride in our huge outdoor arena, next to a spring-fed pond that is graced by a weeping willow. In inclement weather, students ride in our indoor arena. Friends and family can watch from our amphitheatre hillside, or snuggle up in our heated observation area.

Our lessons are structured so that you will never be disappointed. Our staff will have your horse tacked and ready for you when you arrive. Mini-Mights ride for a half-hour in a group of three on our oldest and most quiet horses. Children and young adults ride for an hour in a group no larger than five. We welcome beginners, those with some experience and advanced riders.

Our staff and top riders form the eventing team. They compete in dressage, cross country and stadium jumping. Six of our 12 school horses event at novice level in New England's USEA Area One.

The Autumn Lesson Series begins the week of August 31, and runs for 10 weeks. Lessons are for adults, young adults and kids ages 5 and up.
